Subject: Invitation to attend Séminaire eTwinning francophone on 'Participation démocratique' in Canopé Lille, France

The eTwinning National Support Service (NSS) is pleased to announce that educators are invited to participate in a face-to-face Séminaire eTwinning francophone on 'Participation démocratique' for Secondary School teachers. This will be held in Canopé Lille, France from the 26th – 28th April 2019 in French.

Target Group

Secondary school educators teaching French. Beginners in eTwinning.

Language

The seminar will be held entirely in French

Application Form

The Maltese NSS will be sponsoring two participants to attend the seminar in France. Lodging, seminar fees and flights will be covered and booked by the eTwinning National Support Service. Educators currently teaching in Secondary schools, are invited to apply for the seminar by filling in and sending the attached application form.

Report/Dissemination

Participants will be expected to submit a report with details of the seminar within 5 days of their return. Dissemination of experiences are to be shared with school staff. This must be documented and sent to etwinning@ilearn.edu.mt. Write ups may be included in the eTwinning Newsletter, Facebook Page or Website.

Eligibility Criteria

Interested Educators must register to eTwinning prior to the seminar, as well as register an eTwinning Project with a European Partner whilst in France. Applications, endorsed by the Head of School and College Principal must be sent by email to the eTwinning National Support Service on etwinning@ilearn.edu.mt by not later than Friday 15th March 2019.

Due to the limited spaces available applications will be accepted on a first come first served basis.

Educators who have participated in eTwinning Seminars or Professional Development Workshops abroad sponsored by eTwinning in the last 5 scholastic years will not be considered.
