An invitation to attend a joint workshop between eTwinning NSS and EUPA

The eTwinning National Support Service, in collaboration with the European Union Programs Agency (EUPA) is pleased to announce a joint information/training workshop for schools interested in exploring the opportunities and possibilities in bridging eTwinning and Erasmus+.

Workshops are targeted for eTwinners who would like additional information on the conceptualisation of Erasmus+ projects and their funding as well as experienced eTwinners embarking on a new Erasmus+ project. The session will also serve participants to familiarize themselves with the application form.

The joint workshop will be held at the new Digital Literacy Centre premises in Joseph Abela Scolaro Street, Hamrun on Friday 18th October 2019, between 08.45 and 13.30.

Schools are invited to participate by sending one representative. Attendance is strictly by registration and due to the limited spaces available, applications will be accepted on a first come first served basis.

To register kindly fill in this online link in order to secure participation: <https://bit.ly/2kmLZ3T>

Registrations will be accepted up to Monday 14th October 2019.
